Powers and Functions of the Juvenile Justice Boards as laid down under Section 8 of Juvenile Justice (Care & Protection of Children), Act 2015.

- i. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force but save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, the Board constituted for any district shall have the power to deal exclusively with all the proceedings under this Act, relating to children in conflict with law, in the area of the jurisdiction of such Board.

- ii. The powers conferred on the Board by or under this Act may also be exercise by the High Court and the Children's Court, when the proceedings come before them under section 19 or in appeal, revision or otherwise.

- iii. The functions and responsibilities of the Board shall include:-

* Ensuring the informed participation of the child and the parent or guardian, in every step of the process;

* Ensuring that the child's rights are protected throughout the process of apprehending the child, inquiry, aftercare and rehabilitation;

* Ensuring availability of legal aid for the child through the legal services institutions;

* Wherever necessary the Board shall provide an interpreter or translator, having such qualifications, experience and on payments of such fees as may be prescribed to the child if he fails to understand the language used in the proceedings;

* Directing the Probation Officer or in case a Probation Officer is not available to the Child Welfare Officer or a Social Worker, to undertake a social investigation in to the case and submit a social investigation report within a period of fifteen days from the date of first production before the Board to ascertain the circumstances in which the alleged offence was committed;

* Adjudicate and dispose of cases of children in conflict with law in accordance with the process of inquiry specified in section 14;

* Transferring to the Child Welfare Committee matters concerning the child alleged to be in conflict with law stated to be in need of child and protection at any stage, thereby recognising that a child in conflict with law can also be a child in need of care simultaneously and there is a need for the Committee and the Board to be both involved.

* Disposing of the matter and passing a final order that includes an individual care plan for the child's rehabilitation, including follow up by the Probation Officer or the District Child Protection Unit or a member of a non-governmental organisation, as may be required.

- * Conducting inquiry for declaring fit persons regarding care of children in conflict with law;
- * Conducting at least one inspection visit every month of residential facilities for children in conflict with law and recommend action for improvement in quality of services to the District Child Protection Unit and the State Government;
- * Order the police for registration of first information report for offences committed against any child in conflict with law, under this Act or any other law for the time being in force, on a complaint by a Committee in this regard;
- * Conducting regular inspection of jails meant for adults to check if any child is lodged in such jails and take immediate measures for transfer of such a child to the observation home; and
- * Any other function as may be prescribed.
